
Eyes Wide Open Online Award

10 - 16 November 2021

Watch, vote and spread the word: In the run-up to the INTERFILM Festival (16 - 21 November), the "Eyes Wide Open Online Award" concerning the environment and social justice will be launched today, Wed. 10 November.

The 9 short films with a total programme length of 64 minutes can be seen on Sooner for one week, free of charge, all over the world.

Click here for the competition!

The winning film will receive a cash prize of €2000 from the Heinrich Böll Foundation

The 9 films:

Pile

Toby Auberg - England - 3:30 min - Capitalism as the Tower of Babel

View

Odveig Klyve - Norway - 4:30 min - Huge things overtake a small town

Made for Walking

Hélène Baillot, Raphaël Botiveau - France- 18 min - A cycle of shoes

Annah la Javanaise

Fatimah Tobing Rony - Indonesia - 6 min - The Maid by Paul Gauguin

Proteste!

Sophie Le Hire - France / Senegal - 7 min - Everyday actionism in Dakar

Angst

Béla Baptiste - Austria - 10 min - A drug called fear

Pointe Black

Rebecca Murray - England - 5:30 min - On the struggles of a ballerina

The Train Station

Lyana Patrick - Canada - 2 min - Survival in the Canadian Residential School

Animators For Belarus

Yulia Ruditskaya - Poland / Belarus / USA - 8 min - 50 artists collectively

Info on the Competition on our Website

Become an interfilm Friend!

Support us and take advantage of all interfilm Berlin has to offer including a free festival pass, an invitation to the grand festival opening at Volksbühne Berlin and two invitations to short film events year round! Companies are also welcome to donate. More about here
